Message from Father Bobbin

Dear Parishioners,

Last week we started looking at how to go to Confession step-by-step. We start with the Sign of the Cross (and perhaps the words: "Bless me Father, for I have sinned.") and mention, at least approximately, how long it was since your last Confession.

We should mention that it is possible that the priest may say a prayer or words of introduction or even read a very short Scripture passage at this point. But it is common practice for the penitent to go right into the confession of sins. (So if the priest doesn't say anything, you keep talking!)

How should we confess our sins? Hopefully we've done an examination of conscience before coming to Confession so we are not just trying to think of things off the top of our head. It is important and necessary to confess anything of a serious nature but it is also helpful to confess our minor faults and failings. This helps us be aware of them so we can grow.

We should avoid two extremes when confessing. One would be to confess in a way that is so general, we're really not confessing anything. For example: "I'm sorry for any way I've offended God." Whether we speak in such a way because we don't know what to say or because we're trying to conceal something embarrassing, this is not a good way to confess and may even invalidate the sacrament.

The other extreme would be scrupulosity, which is not uncommon. Some people confess their sins in almost excruciating detail because they are afraid they will not be forgiven and maybe even incur God's anger if they miss something! This is not healthy, spiritually or psychologically. We always approach Confession knowing that God is our loving Father who just wants to have us back, like the father in the Prodigal Son parable.

More on the confession of sins next week...

In Christ,
Fr. Bobbin

Prayer for Vocations

Heavenly Father, Lord of the harvest, call forth vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life from our diocese and our families. Inspire men to imitate Christ, the Eternal High Priest, in sacrificial service to your Church. Move the hearts of men and women to offer themselves wholly to You in poverty, chastity and obedience. Send them as laborers for Your harvest. Inspire the faithful to support them with prayers and sacrifice. Raise up holy families who foster openness to your call. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.
